Rebuilding Your Nursing Curriculum: Integrating the Evidence Into Nursing Education

Target Audience

Curriculum chairs and committee members, deans, directors, program chairs, course coordinators, and other faculty interested in pre-licensure and RN to BSN program curricula

Overview

- ❑ Opening reception on Feb 18th from 6–8 pm
- ❑ Lunch & refreshments included each day
- ❑ 3 dynamic national speakers
- ❑ Great networking opportunities

Conference Outcomes

-  Identify selected evidence-based implications for contemporary pre-licensure or RN-to-BSN nursing curricula.
-  Explain how to approach the dynamic curriculum improvement process.
-  Describe three current mobility models in nursing education.
-  Describe the value of using a concept-based approach to focus on clinical decision-making for safe patient care.
-  Begin to plan how to apply quality and safety competencies into classroom and clinical activities.

Speakers

Donna “Iggy” Ignatavicius, MS, RN, ANEF

Donna is internationally recognized as an expert in nursing education through her work experience, publications and speaking engagements. Donna is a celebrated author of nursing textbooks, and has published multiple book chapters and journal articles. She is also highly acclaimed for her Boot Camp for nurse educators conducted over the past 5 years. As President of DI Associates, Inc., Donna provides curriculum consultation and nursing education presentations throughout the United States and has helped plan and conduct over 2000 local and regional nursing education workshops. In recognition of her contribution to the field of nursing education, Donna was inducted as a Fellow of the Academy of Nursing Education in 2007.

Dori Taylor Sullivan, PhD, RN, NE-BC, CNL, CPHQ

Dori Taylor Sullivan is the associate Dean for Academic Affairs at Duke University School of Nursing in Durham, NC. Dori’s previous positions include chair of a nursing school in Connecticut, assistant vice chancellor for quality and performance improvement in an academic medical center, and national healthcare consultant. She has served as core faculty expert for evidence-based practice as well as lead evaluator for assessment of student learning in the 15 Quality and Safety Education in Nursing (QSEN) pilot schools that were part of the QSEN Learning Collaborative. Dori continues as a QSEN consultant for the next project phase focusing on promoting widespread curricular enhancements in quality and safety through faculty development, consultations, and a national learning collaborative.

Tim Bristol, PhD, RN, CNE

Tim is a nurse educator and E-Learning specialist who has taught face-to-face (F2F) and on-line courses in undergraduate and graduate nursing programs. He provides faculty development for schools of nursing and facilitated curricular revision integrating E-learning strategies. Tim also assists organizations in developing effective instructional design for F2F, clinical, and lab resource centers.
