NurseTim[®]
INCORPORATED

“As a new nurse educator, you all gave me invaluable teaching tools that I feel I can take back and share with my faculty... Thank you for your time. Thank you for your excellence. Thank you for your attention to detail. Thank you for reminding us why we do what we do. [It's] about giving students the tools they need to go out and succeed in the field of nursing. I feel like you all equipped me to do just that. Well done.”

PROVIDING NEW FACULTY WITH A SKILL SET TO FACILITATE THEIR SUCCESS

The transition from expert clinician to novice educator is a difficult one. Being a great nurse does not prepare you to teach someone to become a great nurse. This conference focuses on several of the most common topics of interest among new nurse educators ranging from issues of the learner, curriculum, course, testing, and more. Come prepared to learn in an active, hands-on environment that will quickly enhance your knowledge and skills, catapulting your career to the next level.

OVERALL CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

Participants will:

1. Engage with colleagues in exploring the role of the novice nurse educator.
2. Apply best practices in nursing education.
3. Integrate the NCLEX® client needs categories into classroom and clinical teaching settings.
4. Demonstrate use of item creation, blueprinting, and analysis.
5. Create an individualized plan for success in developing the faculty role.

NURSING CONTACT HOURS

Up to 18 hours of nursing continuing education will be awarded upon completion of CE criteria, up to six for pre-conference day and 12 for days one and two.

NurseTim, Inc. is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

CE completion criteria include: payment of conference fee, attendance of the entire session, and submission of a completed evaluation tool.

All faculty and planners at nursing continuing education activities are required to disclose to the audience (1) any significant financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial products, goods, or services and (2) any unlabeled/unapproved uses of drugs or devices discussed in their presentations. Such disclosures will be made in writing in the course presentation materials.

GROUP DISCOUNT

Three or more faculty registrations will qualify your group for a discount. Registrations must be mailed or completed online together with fees paid prior to the conference registration deadline. Group discounts are applied automatically.
